

What are the challenges faced when promoting brand on the market?

- There are few or no customers;
- Old methods in attracting customers are inefficient;
- No outcomes from your advertisements;
- The acronyms SEO, SMM, SMO and GA are just a set of vague words that don't make sense to you;
- Can't figure out which sales-channel is right for you;
- Revenue and profits keep falling;
- Customers and employees are leaving you;
- Your business is not growing.

What can we do for you?

We use an entrepreneurial approach to business promotion, as we are entrepreneurs with experience in business for over 10 years.

Later, we launched a separate company called “Golden Minds” LLC and brought together the best and most experienced brand promotion specialists on the market.

Integrated Approach

We apply complex and personalized approach to the promotion of your business based on a general marketing analysis of your business!

All tasks are performed by digital and outdoor marketing specialists, and not by programmers or other professionals who have never engaged in sales in their life.

Customer Oriented Approach

We will create conditions for a constant influx of new customers, increase their life cycle, and return old customers. After all, repeated sales bring in the largest checks and stable incomes. Our priority is to turn your customers into regular and loyal users of your products and services.

Our Approach

Individual Approach

We apply only effective and modern approaches in your business promotion, both offline and online.

For example, someone will ideally use marketing kit for sealing a deal at live meetings and negotiations, and someone will have “active” clients, from properly configured contextual advertising on a properly made selling website.

Assistance

We will continue working on your project even after its creation and launching, as well as constantly monitoring the status and efficiency of the project.

We will make required adjustments and measurements on time in order to increase your sales and collect the analytics.

In addition, we provide monthly content writing to your website/blog and support your company in social networks: Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, LinkedIn and Telegram. We also conduct offline and online events and much more.
